Run report for run 2197

Venue, 330 Hobart Rd Youngtown

Hare: Blakey

Weather, warm but not a heat wave .26<sup>OC</sup>.

THE RUN GOES SOMETHING LIKE THIS

The pack is chafing at the bit to get the run underway and call to the Hare Blakey what time does the 6:30 Pm run start. Ok Ok says the Hare out to Hobart Rd then turn left, Bendover says If we walk backwards will we turn left or right. By this time the Hare is getting confused and calls ON ON. Confused is an understatement the trail turns right onto Hobart Rd not left, Bendover said I told you we have to walk backwards tonight. A Hasher is heard to say I thought it was only the Swedish who do not know left from right as their water flows in the opposite direction as it goes down the sink drain. Enough of this calls Blakey ON ON get moving. The trail does a loop up behind Shrek's workshop and heads towards the Primary school. Another loop and we come to the locked gate at the St Peters

Parish. Most of the Hashers squeeze through the gate a few have to take the long route around to Hobart Rd. The trail then heads up Quarantine Rd into the park next to the cemetery to a check at the Bowls club. Scary picks up the trail in Carr St and we are soon Passing the golden arches of the local Maccas . The trail crosses Hobart Rd turns down Fawknor Ave the turns left or is that right to the ON Home sigh at the locked gates of the Kings Meadows high school. The pack decides they are too old to climb the gates of the school and back track to Fawknor Ave to Hobart Rd then turn Right 1800 metres and we are back at the ON ON site

On ON:

Another hot day in Launceston and the Hashers are expecting a few light ales after a run in the heat. Goblet is the first to fill his grail up out of the light barrel and commences to skull the beer as soon as the beer hits his mouth it is spat back out. Goblet says that tastes like month old Camel Piss. A couple of more grails are filled with the same result. Hashers who are not driving sample the heavy keg and its pouring and tasting perfect. Bendover fills the skooling mugs with the light with a smile on his face this will teach them not to have to skull each week. The bell is rung Bendover wants to get the skulls out of the way before the Camels piss warms up sitting in the Sun. Rainbow starts the Lip session off with a great joke. Goblet is off to the pub as soon as the skulls are over and returns with a six pack of Boags light ale, no more month old camel piss for me tonight he mutters under his breath.
