Run report for run 2198

Venue, 129 Panama Forest Rd Golconda

Hare: Pash/ Gobley

Weather, warm but not a heat wave .25^{0c}

Goblet and Pash have visited Golconda a couple of times over recent weeks checking out the forest for a suitable trail. As the Hashers are arriving mid Saturday morning Goblet and Pash emerge from the forest with Machetes in hand, blood pouring down their shins, One Hump sys where the fu@k are you taking soon calling ON ON he has picked up the flour trail heading into the pine plantation on the fire trail. The next kilometre of the run is flat on gravel trail. This trail soon peters out and we are bush bashing through the sharp reeds Goblet was talking about a slippery moss cover log takes over the creek we are now fighting our way through massive man ferns and tee tree scrub. The scrub suddenly disappears as we come across Lone Star Rd where we find another check Feathers is soon on trail and we

us. 1300 Hrs is the official start time as this approaches Sprocket can be heard mustering the troops with his horn. ON ON calls Goblet beware of the sharp reeds at the creek crossing of course there is a drink stop, the run starts up on Panama forest Rd. The pack leaves the tranquil camping site with trepidation what are we in for??. The trail heads west on Panama Forest Rd for about a kilometre to the old trapper's hut where we find our first check. Mr Sheen is are heading East on the forestry Rd a kilometre later we cross Virginia Rd and head into the pine plantation again this time going up a steep trail where they have recently been felling the tall pine trees. At the top the trail heads north down a steep embankment which leads to the drink stop on the banks of the lake. A couple of quick ice cold stubbies a few wines a bite to eat and we off again. The trail soon leads back to Virginia Rd the well marked trail leads back to Panama Forest Rd and back to the ON ON site.

A good run of about 7km.

ON ON:

Hash Pash has left nothing to chance, official beer tasters have been recruited from within the club to travel to Golconda on Friday to set up the beer trailer and thoroughly test that the beer is pouring to perfection. Goblet and Sheila both say it is an arduous task but someone has to do it. A drink stop on the run a fire pot near the beer trailer, barbecue tea, bacon and egg breakfast on Sunday, plenty of ice cold beer wine and champagne, superb weather The most idyllic camping spot in Tasmania what more could one want??. A few more Hashers from LH3 perhaps. Our friends from the North West coast, Hobart and LH4 all agree it was a well organised event and all grateful to the effort Hash Pash has gone to make it such an enjoyable weekend.

The beer is pouring well when the Hashers return from the run, Pash returns from the Drink stop and soon has the barby fired up and the snags underway. Quickly followed by the skulls. The sun begins to set behind the trees in the west the days are getting shorter. The traditional fire pot is fired up, Pash has had a big day and thinks no one is watching strips off and has a shower in the middle of the camp ground. The wine sure must have been a good drop one Hasher from the West coast consumed quite an amount and thought she would go to her car which was parked on the opposite side of the lake. There was an almighty splash and scream from behind the beer trailer. Did the Hasher think she could walk on water or did she forget the lake was there. The last of the Hashers turn the music off at about midnight and call it a night. Mr Sheen was heard to say the next morning it is the best LH3 weekend he has ever had and will be doing more Hash camping. Goblet is the first to rise on Sunday morning and is sitting on his deck chair watching the rabbits fornication on the island are you sure they were rabbits Goblet.
