RUN No 2211 26 Morley Rd Trevallyn Hare: Inlet

LH3 Hash

Weekly Bull Shit (new Boong size font for easy reading)

Run report for run 2211 inlet – Another Look-out Run

Finally after an eternity at Prospect the run has returned to Riverside and Tiles' Block. Hare Inlet states the obvious, "Dark tonight so you will definitely need a torch".

Out the gate and into Snake Gully over a few runaway rocks and on to the old Hydro Village. Nice quiet residential area in modern times but in the seventies thugs were common; there was no way you could put an arrow in Gray Street with out risking your life. Soon a check, someone had heard a whisper that there was a big hill on the run; inexperience came to the fore "There is a big hill, must be up that one" and up Rowsphorn Mountain they went. Was a feasible strategy but the trail was called further afield in Lions Park. After desecrating the habitat of the rare green frog the pack caused more environmental erosion scaling the slippery track to South Pomona Road and headed towards the Bowls Club.

Around Max Fry Hall Sprocket called 'ON BACK TO TEE INTERSECTION' – Inlet obviously knew which Tee Intersection but for the rest it was guesswork. It was suggested to think like Inlet and that way we will know what he's up to and where the trail can be found. All attempts to think like Inlet failed and some hash men are still suffering after attempting entry into this psychologically murky area. Unrelated to thinking like Inlet the trail was happened upon and the man himself was found lurking in the bushes at Free-land's Lookout. Bras and panties were reinstated as the emerging pack scared off the remaining parkers engaged in lustful activities. Inlet said,

"Heavy on the left", referring to the esky of beer. Similar to Blakey's run of last week, but with the extra consolation of beer in hand, views of the Tamar Valley, City and beyond were appreciated before returning On Home. Good run Inlet keeping the pack together and climaxing with a piss stop at the look out.

ON ON:

The satellite dish has been finely tuned and turned to hot.

ON Downs:

Inlet gets a drink for setting a good run with a piss stop and a view.

Rickshaw has lost the horn and thus must drink too.

Pash repeated a story about a woman on his bus explaining the significance of being homophobic to the passengers – apparently totally against Metro policy. The Circle wasn't interested in this politics so instead Pash gets to drink for knobbing it with Mick Malthouse when on a recent trip to Melbourne.

The Swedish FW, yes ABBA, tops the weekend footy tipping and celebrates with a grail of fine ale.

Raffle:

Raffle rigging saw ABBA with lollies, Bend Over with a mystery box, Deli double dipping with cats piss and Guinness. Sprocket won major prize of crayfish but I guess he will pick it up next week as it's still in the beer cooler – should still be okay but it does stink a bit.

Joke of the Week:

The importance of an occupation after retirement

As

we get older we sometimes begin to doubt our ability to "make a difference" in the world. It is at these times that our hopes are boosted by the remarkable achievements of other "seniors" who have found the courage to take on challenges that would make many of us wither.

Harold Schlumberg is such a person:

THIS IS QUOTED FROM HAROLD:

"I've often been asked, 'What do you do now that you're retired?'

Well...I'm fortunate to have a chemical engineering background and one of the things I enjoy most is converting beer, wine and whiskey into urine.

It's rewarding, uplifting, satisfying and fulfilling. I do it every day and I really enjoy it."

Harold is an inspiration to us all.

THE ASS END OF THE TRASH

All was going well until I ask Mick how his mate Nathan was Garth I do not have any mates by the name of Nathan. Nanette who invited Garth to my Sons wedding?
