LH3 Hash

Some times Weekly Bull Shit (new Boong size font for easy reading)

Run report for run 2215 Its bloody cold in Perth tonight, Garry has the fire pot well ablaze before the Hashers arrive will this be a fatal mistake will the hashers venture out on the run. 6:30 Pm arrives Garry calls ON ON get going the run starts on the corner of Arthur St. There does not seem to be too much enthusiasm as Goblet calls ON ON as he disappears into the darkness. The rest of the pack except Gorby move away from the fire pot and follow Goblet. Gorby can be heard muttering too cold for a Queenslander out there tonight one could expire from hypothermia. The well marked trail send the pack around the new norther subdivision then crosses back over Arthur St where the trail vanishes has one of the locals washed the chalk off the footpath. Worm a local from Perth has headed towards local Pub and has stumbled across the trail and calls ON ON. The pack just manages to crosses the train line as the 7:00 Pm passenger train from Hobart passes blowing its horn as it crosses the Highway. A check outside the Federal Politicians office gives a few Hashers a chance to vent their political views as the local member Eric

Hutchinson steps outside to see why a bunch is congregating outside his headquarters. He soon ventures back inside when he realises he is wasting his time only Worm lives in his Electorate. Thumbs has picked up the trail which takes the pack down to the banks of the South Esk River. The trail now heads north heading back towards the ON ON site, all the Hashers except Abba miss the ON Home sign scrawled in the gutter in Clarence St. A good run set by our new runner Garry

On ON:

The returning pack is huddling around the fire pot warming up their frozen fingers Tyles raids Garrys wood pile and stokes the fire put up until he cannot find a space for any more logs. The old washing Machine fire pot is soon glowing red even Gorby has to move his seat away from the heat. Garry has had the boss cooking loaves of bread all day and he has filled them with a creamy filling, quiet delectable washed down with XXXX mid strength beer on a cold night in Perth.

ON Downs:

We have three new old runners with us tonight, Gorby visiting fro Tropical Queensland, Worm visiting from Freezing Perth Tasmania and Dunnoim visiting from even colder Devon Hills

All Hasher except Two Bob appear to know it's a Skulling offence to take calls on their mobile phone on a run.

The last to skull is the new Runner Hare Gazza
