RUN No 2222 2 Brewer Place· Lulworth Hare: Boong & Sheila

LH3 Hash Weekly Bull Shit -

Run report for run 2222 – Lulworth Tutu Tutu Run

When the original 2222 plan for Four Springs collapsed because of legal differences between the Hare and the multinational conglomerate Scary kindly nominated his beach house as the ideal replacement; the fact that he was holidaying in Azteryacumstain at the time and knew nothing of this latest arrangement is beside the point. Lulworth with ample accommodation and pristine running country, it surely is a Hashers dream cum true.

The assembled throng of northern hashers in regalia of colourful tutus and various jumbles were informed of two run options; the main run for the fit and healthy and a shorter run for the old and incapacitated. All set off up the hill into the Ravenswood Heights area of Lulworth where the magnificent 180 degree vista of the big blue wobbly thingy could be fully appreciated ahead of a check on surf board corner. Still going with the breeze the trail restarted on the main road heading out of town before it jagged into typical seaside undergrowth. The trail continued under the canopy of various plants of the Acacia Ulicifolia genus until the trail was temporarily lost at the fence on a roadway; it was found heading due north out to sea then changed eastward and through a native clearing of Ericaceae, Epacris and possi- bly some examples of Styphelioideae. Further on the pack encountered some golfus wankus as they had cum to the edge of the Royal Tam-O-Shanty Golf Club but the trail then diverted through the new subdivision and over the dunes. Awaiting leeside of a small dune was Hare Boong with a mixture of beverages and nibbly foods. Where are the short walkers? Shamed into action a small search party dispersed and were back in no time with the short walkers. Trust a local? Sure can? Tightspot is a dick related local so knows her way around here..... except when the tide is in and then you can follow her wandering aimlessly in the sand dunes. Luckily the scent of red wine and fine cheddar alerted her and her followers to the drink stop. Outcum - the short walk was longer than the run! Has anyone seen ABBA? Who cares? Anyone want another stubby while the esky is open?

The on home leg proved to be quite gruelling with strong headwinds causing a wind chill in the negative degrees, heavy rolling seas, salt spray and the threat of thunderstorms and rain... tis nothing for the veteran hasher one learns to appreciate nature in all its forms and besides, there is beer at the end of this.

ON ON:

What happens at the on-on stays at the on-on. A good time was had by all with abundance of wine, women and song, beer, men and music, great salads assembled by Goblet, meats from the explosive BBQ, warmth from freshly felled firewood, plenty of amusement provided in house. The fire pot and Scary's new Cyclone Proof Carport protected us from the elements especially the ones who partied on till 4 in the morning.

Thanks for cumming and thank you to all involved in the organising.
