RUN No 2228 11 Hubert Way Youngtown Hare: Rickshaw

Run report for run 2228 – Rickshaw – Aloha's Garage

What a breath of fresh air! A new ON-ON site with heaters galore and a real run with real chalk markings on real streets. Aloha had generously offered his garage for Rickshaw to base a run; however in typical Rickshaw style he omitted to give Aloha a scheduled date for this run. Luckily Aloha is an avid reader of the Hash Trash and observed that there was a run from his premises...all is sweet. What a wonderful greeting with the trailer neatly set up, a fire pot burning in the yard and two gas heaters operating inside the northern equivalent of Joe's Garage – see how easy it is ABBA? The run started without a hitch and continued on a simply marked trail around the Youngtown area; the pack always in sight of each other; the trail markings clear – see how easy it is Blakey? The only incident was when the calls of the Bulldogs training at the footy ground were confused with the usual bellowing on-on calls from AB-BA ?????????????? Ya. The on home this week was in the same place for all; on the main road adjacent to the pedestrian underpass, this seems to work a lot better than having multiple options miles apart. Only two sane options tonight, down the hill a bit then back up or, as most did, the direct Victoria Street route. A good little run, a bit under an hour, Rickshaw didn't break any world records setting it but sometimes the simple things in life are the best – and the easiest for all

On Downs;

Hare Rickshaw started proceedings with a down.

ABBA apparently went to the wrong address – ya.

Aloha for graciously opening his home for the 2228

Boong and Pash were on a date night (“date” night = pun) watching porn in Pash’s Porn Pit when hunger forced them out for pizza. Now the pizza place is only a 5 minute walk but Pash took the city 4X4 to show off the glorious lustre of the 10 coats of Excalibur space age silicon - turtle wax – carnauba – knob shine that he had applied that afternoon. With the no right turn out of Munford Street it takes 10 minutes more than walking, - anyway he parked carefully away from the dirt and puddles, changed his slippers for boots and was entering the pizza joint to pick up the order when Boong thought he might go in too. Boong was about to exit the shiniest Hilux in automotive history and had just opened the door when a loaded log truck sped through taking the passenger door with it, leaving Boong red faced holding a door handle, a rear vision mirror still spinning at his feet. Indeed an unfortunate incident you must agree but still worthy of a drink.

Raffle:

The vegetarian raffle resulted in Bendover being drawn for every prize; he elected to only take the chocolates, leaving Inlet and Boong with wine and, of course, Sprocket had to be in it and took the Guinness. Tiles’ tickets were shunned again resulting in SFA – thanks for the $5 donation.

ON ON:

Impossible not to be warm and I'm sure Rickshaw will take all the accolades for the on-on set up; thanks Aloha. The Hash Pash Cash and the Hash Hawker Monk had set up their own office area within Aloha's Garage to carry out their business transactions – very professional looking wankers tonight. Eventually Lip Blakey called the circle and promised no jokes but did take a very average one from the floor.
