Weekly Bull Shit -

Run report for run 2238 Rickshaw's Post-it-note Run

With ominous cloud formations threatening to unleash a bombardment of hailstones the enthusiasm of the assembled pack had all but disappeared. Despite the gloomy conditions Rickshaw soldiered on with a string of pathetic excuses of why he had not set a proper trail, instead opting for a point to point run defined by "informative" notes posted at strategic sites in the local area. The first note was stuck to the hash trailer just above the newly installed, state of the art, wind up, wind down stabilizer. The engineered new addition (thanks to Boong) became a necessity after bastard hasher(s) severely deficient of intelligence dragged the trailer with stabilizer leg still engaged. A few weeks ago the leg had disappeared altogether and, incredibly, following on from that act of stupidity the safety red replacement suffered an equal fate by phantom hasher(s) unknown. Anyhow the note read "old 5 ways Fish'n'chip shop" but the pack was apprehension until Goblet took the lead and sprinted at OAP speed up the driveway. Has Goblet found a new lease of life after his confrontation with the lead engine of the Tasman Limited? At ye olde F&C shoppe Rickshaw had obviously been in warm up mode with not a clue what he was doing or where he was going – the note read 'Five ways phone box' which was directly opposite not more than 10 metres away. In the phone box another note "Tinys Pies" (sic) which was further down the road but still well within sight. The Pie shop note was written in some sort of code that Inlet could not decipher, luckily ABBA ya had studied Pre-Jurassic Hieroglyphics ya at Ersta Skondal University ya and could read the inscription, unfortunately no-one can understand ABBA so the guess was the Punchbowl shop. The trail keeps on - Clip-sal, Benevolent Society, KM Hotel. Kings Meadows Hotel, with a wealth of hash experience behind them Tiles and Inlet had the foresight and intuition to predict Rickshaw's trail, were able to hash and were perched in the Hotel bar imbibing ale when the pack arrived – such awareness of ones surroundings only comes from dedication. From the KM Hotel they were also able to predict their next hashing strategy – on home. For the remainder without their gift - Rivers, Bait &Tackle, Bowls Club, Hash Temple, On Home. Some confusion arose over the site of the Hash Temple as this honorary status is bestowed upon a dwelling that has sacred significance of the Hash nature – in this instance it was accepted that the Mumford Street temple would suffice only because it was closer to Home. What started as total laziness and apathy to ones duty as the hare had somehow transpire to a very reasonable and enjoyable run – Rickshaw fluked a good one.

ON ON:

Free catering with tonight's health food – sabs with white bread and your choice of sauce.... working mans food - doesn't get any better than that!

And it didn't with Blakey taking the lip session and espousing the pros and cons of Rickshaw's run – he was soon brought to task on his bullshitting as the sludgearse had not left the on-on site whatsoever. Regardless;-

JUST IMAGINE..

If you had bought $1,000.00 of Qantas shares one year ago,
you would have $49.00 today!

If you bought $1,000.00 AIG shares one year ago,
you would have $33.00 today!

If you bought $1,000.00 worth of Lehman Brothers shares
one year ago, you would have $0.00 today!

BUT.... if you purchased $1,000.00 worth of beer one year ago, drank all the beer, then returned the aluminium cans for recycling
YOU WOULD HAVE RECEIVED $214.00

SO BASED ON THE ABOVE, THE BEST CURRENT INVESTMENT PLAN IS TO DRINK HEAVILY AND RECYCLE!

AND DID YOU KNOW...

A recent study found that the average Aussie walks 900 MILES A YEAR

Another study found that Aussies drink on average 22 GALLONS OF ALCOHOL A YEAR
THAT MEANS ON AVERAGE, AUSSIES GET

41 MILES TO THE GALLON.

MAKES YOU PROUD TO BE AN AUSSIE DOESN'T IT?
