Weekly Bull Shit -

Run report for run 2242 Fingers' Garden Party

This bonzer weather is in stark contrast to the usual rain that seems to plague Fingers's runs. His effort starts with the obligatory trek through the local area and the long grasses of the unkempt play parks and fringe bushland. A few missing tonight, usual comer Boong has deserted to caravan the mainland, Shrek is playing with his motorbike friends, Sprocket's little brain now directs his social outings and this coinciding with another few absentees results in not a big crowd for no particular reason. The run finds its way to the back of the primary school where some hashers have come to a hurdle; a high fence with those pointy spear like thingies consecutively placed along the top. "We can get over here alright" called hasher one that sits on an excavator on his arse all day while another nameless hasher two that has a real job sitting on his arse all day driving a bus declared he was incapable of such a feat. The third hasher wished he had parked his car closer so he could drive back. With a bit of teamwork and a tad more agility hasher one helped hasher three over and then together they coaxed, pushed, pulled and dragged over hasher two. There were no casualties so they continued, joined the main group and eventually came to a check near St Pats. Confusing the chalk trail of tonight was the permanent spray painted markings of a Fingers run from years ago as they were both in the same handwriting; paint goes left, chalk goes right onto Westbury Road. Pathetic little squeaks on the hash horn confirmed this heading. Fingers then took the trail into the back of Prospect High where a Shirts vs Skins footy training drill was in progress – the young muscular athletes stopped in their tracks and looked pensively as the Hash Pack swaggered by. What were they thinking? Strutting continued past the school boundary and into Kate Reed bushland the trail went with No Frills and on through the Old Tudor roundabout, did a couple of blocks then ON HOME.

Well done Fingers, a great run and what a fantastic use of the parks, reserves and bushland that are situated around this otherwise dreary suburb.

ON ON

Pleasant garden surroundings and the first night out for the new beer cooler that Sheila had put together from derelict bits Rainbow and Scary had scored plus a few new shiny bits. Most importantly it has a real mans tap to make the beer flow faster saving 12 seconds on every 10oz pour. So if Tiles was to drink 10 beers after the run this would equate to 120 seconds or 2 minutes extra time every Tuesday night. Extrapolate this and that is 104 minutes per year; when he is 100 this would add up to a massive 74.5 hours or 3.1 days extra for his wank time just from pouring beer more quickly.

Blakey spoke about the run as if he was on it YES HE WAS ON IT!!!!

Joke of the Week

Little Johnny attended a horse auction with his father. He watched as his father moved from horse to horse, running his hands up and down the horse's legs and rump, and chest. After a few minutes, Johnny asked, "Dad, why are you doing that?" His father replied, "Because when I'm buying horses, I have to make sure that they are healthy and in good shape before I buy. Johnny, looking worried, said, "Dad, I think the UPS guy wants to buy Mom."

Husband:- I want divorce. My wife hasn't spoken to me in six months.
