Run report for run 2243 Pash Proxy Run

An unfortunate turn of events required Pash to enter from the interchange bench to replace Blakey and set this weeks run. It was noted in the last issue of Trash that Blakey had been seen to complete the entire Fingers run; an extraordinary occasion and such unexpected exertion may have contributed to his situation. Without going into too much detail Blakey was admitted to hospital with a serious STI ailment and will be out of action for some time. We sincerely wish Blakey all the best and luck with further testing and hope modern treatments lead for a speedy recovery. At such short notice Pash pulled out the script of one of his previous trails. Luckily it wasn't the infamous "sticky note" debacle, this one was chosen from his suite of successes.

Common to the start of most runs in this area the early part was a gentle warm up around the streets of the six-ways before following the KM Rivulet towards the Punchbowl Reserve. Here Pash could have covered himself with glory and possible "Best Summer Run" by taking the trail through the glorious exhibits of Ericaceae, in particular the species Rhododendron Ferrugineum which are currently providing a magnificent floral display. This path would have involved passing through a number of athletic young ladies training for touch football also creating a magnificent display; instead Pash followed the predestined plan around the Golf Club perimeter fence into Norwood. The mandatory road home from here has been genetically encoded into every LH3 Hasher and the chalk markings seemed unnecessary. Still a good run overall and thanks to Pash for covering off Blakey's inopportune illness.

ON ON:

When on trail it is hard to gauge how many hashers are on the run, some are late, some are lost, some are just sludge arses but when back at the on-on it became apparent that hashers were sparse. Not a heavy turnout but boosted by Captain Knockers and her knockers visiting from Sydney Hairy Hoariettes. And speaking of big things, a pleasant sight appeared on the BBQ, a decent sized crayfish that Bendover had winched into his dinghy over the weekend – better grab some before ABBA spots it. No Blakey for reasons mentioned before so Pash was managing everything, except the super secure raffle ticket sales that Goblet diligently administers. Who's up for a drink?

On Downs:

Pash the hare

Captain Knockers visiting

Pash from the floor – he had Scary install speakers/wiring and after Scary had installed the pair Pash watched him close the panels, the man hole access, screw on all wall plates and pack away the tools and stepladder..... Pash then told Scary there were four speakers to be installed!!!

Goblets Raffle:

With the meagre head count there was nearly a prize for every child in Goblet's Nationally Accredited raffle. The winning children were;

ABBA - Family pack

Bugsy – WD40 and knob rag

Delly – opted for the Guinness

Inlet – six pack of locally brewed beverage

Joke of the Week

There once was a bar maid from Yale Upon her chest tattooed were the prices of ale And for the sake of the blind Upon her behind was the same thing in brail

One night a man walks into a bar looking sad. The bartender asks the man what he wants. The man says "Oh just a beer". The bartender asked the man "Whats wrong,why are you so down today?". The man said "My wife and i got into a fight,and she said she would'nt talk to me for a month". The bartender said "So whats wrong with that"? The man siad "Well the month is up tonight".

A Shot of Whiskey

A man walks into a bar and orders a shot of whiskey then looks into his pocket. He does this over and over again. Finally, the bartender asks why he orders a shot of whiskey and afterwards look into his pocket. The man responded, "I have a picture of my wife in there and when she starts to look good then i'll go home."

THE ASS END OF THE TRASH

Rickshaw, you have got every check right tonight, have you got new sunnies

Nothing to do with the sunnies , this is Hash Pash's standard run in reverse. I could do it blindfolded.
