LH3 Hash Weekly Bull Shit -

Run report for run 2249 The Magnificent Seven

Apparently through some ancient LH3 folklore it has been accepted by the masses that there must be a trash provided every run, every week. Obviously those that espouse this fantasy don't have to do any of the work involved ie sludge arses. Not one to break with tradition a brief summary of the 2249 and its goings on is provided. Those that read the Trash provided last week for 2248 may have been duped into believing that there was a reasonable turn out of festive hashers when this was only an illusion created by Bugsy's trick photography. Despite being at the same venue this weeks turn up has more than doubled and Tiles has put in a real effort to accommodate and entertain. His run did not venture far from the on on but clever use of on backs and false trails provided an interesting assortment of terrain - a real sight seeing tour of West Riverside. Some may not know that this area was Tiles' stomping ground, acting out his misspent youth living in the "village" (village referring to the old Hydro construction village) where he honed his life skills negotiating in contraband and practicing sexual technique on the local brazen little hussies. The run passed Diseases house, a climb onto the milk crate outside his bathroom window had unfortunately found Suzanne out of the shower and already dressed, disappointing but a chat with Disease was all that was on offer. Down the hill to the little round about then up to the Friary or is that next weeks run? the run then threatened to climb Rosethorn Road, but didn't, then threatened to climb the easement to Reatta Road, but didn't - instead, headed east over the surge shaft hill to a 3D ON HOME at Scareys vacant house.

ON ON:

The on on had all the usual stuff including the stale piss barrel beer that was now in its third or fourth week. Mutiny was afoot and a free night was declared for that very reason. An old man from next door wandered in - said his name was Binny and he thinks he used to run hash. For different reasons he also refused to pay said that drinking this xxxx makes him sober and it wasn't served cold enough. I think there was some beers given out in the circle but I can't remember because Inlet spiked my drinks when I was fixing his party lights.

A magnificent run by Tiles with all the comforts of home, it's a pity only seven were present.

Joke of the Week

A friend of mine, just started his own business in Afghanistan. He's making land-mines that look like prayer mats. It's doing well.

He says prophets are going through the roof!
