RUN No. 2258 Tamar Island Hare: Derbs

LH3 Hash Weekly Bull Shit -

Run report for run 2258 Debs Birthday Bash

Well it's that time of year again its Derb's birthday and we are visiting the dangerous Tamar Island Wetlands centre again for his birthday bash. Derbs is already at the end of the Island after an arduous task of hauling a trolley laden with ice beer marinated chicken wings and an assortment of chips. Goblet has been left in the car park to set the pack off and to carry a sack load of cherry tomatoes to the far end of the Island. ON On you Hashers and sludge arses calls goblet there is no beer if you don't make it to the end of the Island. Binny is with us tonight and cracks a traveller hoping it will last till he gets to the end of the island. Beware of snakes, swooping Nankeen night heron and the vicious Gambusia. The straight forward track follows the board walk all the way to Bruno the bulls paddock then follows the walking trail to the barbecue area where we find Derbs hard at work practicing cooking like he is auditioning for the next round of M.K.R. The food is ready the beer is all but gone the sun is sinking behind the western sky line. Eat the food and lets get back to the car park before the ranger locks us in calls the Hare. The food is soon gone it is beginning to get cold as the pack retraces their steps to the car park Binny is fortunate enough to find another traveller to help him get back. Another enjoyable night bought to you by the Hash Legend Derbs

ON ON:

There are three ON ON sites at tonight's run the first is the Barby at the end of the Tamar Island Wetlands reserve, the second is the Wetlands carpark where Derbs and Binny are presented with their LH3 legends plaque. A few hardy Hashers then ventured up to Derbs ranch at New Ecclestone Rd where the keg is cracked. Inlet was last seen extricating his car from a barbwire fence he claims it happened when he swerved to avoid a kangaroo most think the kangaroo was in the paddock and swerved to avoid been hit by inlets Commodore

Joke of the Week

THE ASS END OF THE TRASH

Scary was inlets car in the paddock when he hit the kangaroo or was it still on the road

I swear the kangaroo was on the road when I hit it.
