RUN No. 2270 67 Havelock St Summerhill Hare: Buggy

Weekly Bull Shit -

Run report for run 2270 Bussy's Washed out Gutbuster

Run Hare Bussy

The Lord said let there be light and there was, the Lord then said let there be rain and there was. It's becoming obvious that the lord was not intending to be a Hasher in Launceston. Bussy set the trail on chalk late Monday night not a cloud in the sky. As he retires to bed he is thinking to himself this will be the best winter run of the year. Two thirty in the morning the heavens open up there is an almighty down pour and the chalk is flowing down the gutter towards the Cataract Gorge. No time to set another trail Bussy decides to produce a map with clues to lead the pack to the ON Home sign. What time does Hash start in Launceston 6:30 as it has been for 35 years. 6:30 arrives Bussy hands out the maps and calls on ON ON. The Riverside crew has not arrived as have a few other tardy Hashers. Bussy has set off with the pack as a persuado live Hare. Tyles arrives with the Riverside crew finds the fire pot is not alight and burns the remaining maps with 10 litres of diesel to get the fire pot roaring. Derbs Abba and a couple of other arrive later, where are Bussy's maps says Derbs, what maps says Tyles. Meanwhile the good size pack of 24 is meandering around the parks and streets of Summerhill passing landmarks such as the dog exercise area, the Summerdale reserve, the Summerdale Medical Centre Pamela Crt, Tags favourite Fish shop Kerro's at the Silverdome Roundabout. Up to St Patricks Colleague to the invisible ON Home sign in the Willow Lane Reserve. Just goes to show how an experienced Hasher can recover from the adversaries our Lord puts upon us. In retrospect I am pleased we are not of the Muslim faith.

ON ON:

The Riverside crew have settled into Buggy's garden chairs drinking ale and warming themselves around the roaring fire pot as the pack and the live Hare return. There is an acrid stench of diesel in the air and there are tools laying everywhere spanners pliers hammers stilsens and multigrips. Tyles and Sheila are grinning from ear to ear and cannot wait to tell all what has transpired while the rest of the troops have been trudging around neighbourhood. Tyles says firstly we had no paper to light the fire pot so we burnt the unused maps that were left behind for the late comers. When this didn't work we raided Buggy's diesel supply, this turned into a disaster as I poured it all over my cigarette lighter rendering it operable. Finally found some matches on Buggy's fridge, 10 litres of diesel later the fire pot is glowing. Time for a beer disaster number two, the tap fell off the beer cooler as the gas was turned on, Sheila diagnoses the issue bugged O ring. The tap is held on with Telstra rope and the beer is pouring. We are bugged said the two Riverside crew its more strenuous doing this than going on the run but mind you Inlet watched on while we saved the day. The troops are a bit disappointed with Buggy there are no nibblies on offer to-night maybe it's got something to do with Magpie's trip to Vietnam. We have a visiting Hasher with us tonight Bum Crack from Doncaster. A larger than normal pack with us tonight sees the keg run out at about 10:00 Pm. The pack soon disperses in all directions leaving Buggy on his own to clean up the mess. Another good night of Hashing in Launceston.

Jokey of the Week

A big city doctor visits an Indian tribe full of men, he asks "How do you guys relieve your sexual tension?" "Simple, just come down to the river tomorrow and we'll show you." The next day the doctor shows up and sees a group of men near a donkey. One man says "Since you're our guest you get to go first." The doctor not wanting to go against custom starts to kiss, then proceeds to have sex with the donkey. Then a man in the group asks "Are you almost done Doc?" "We need the donkey to cross the river in order to get to the tribe of women."
