Run report for run 2259 Scary's Trevallyn No Hills Run ?????

Scary says he has set a perfect run on a flat route with no checks or false trails.... Only time will tell

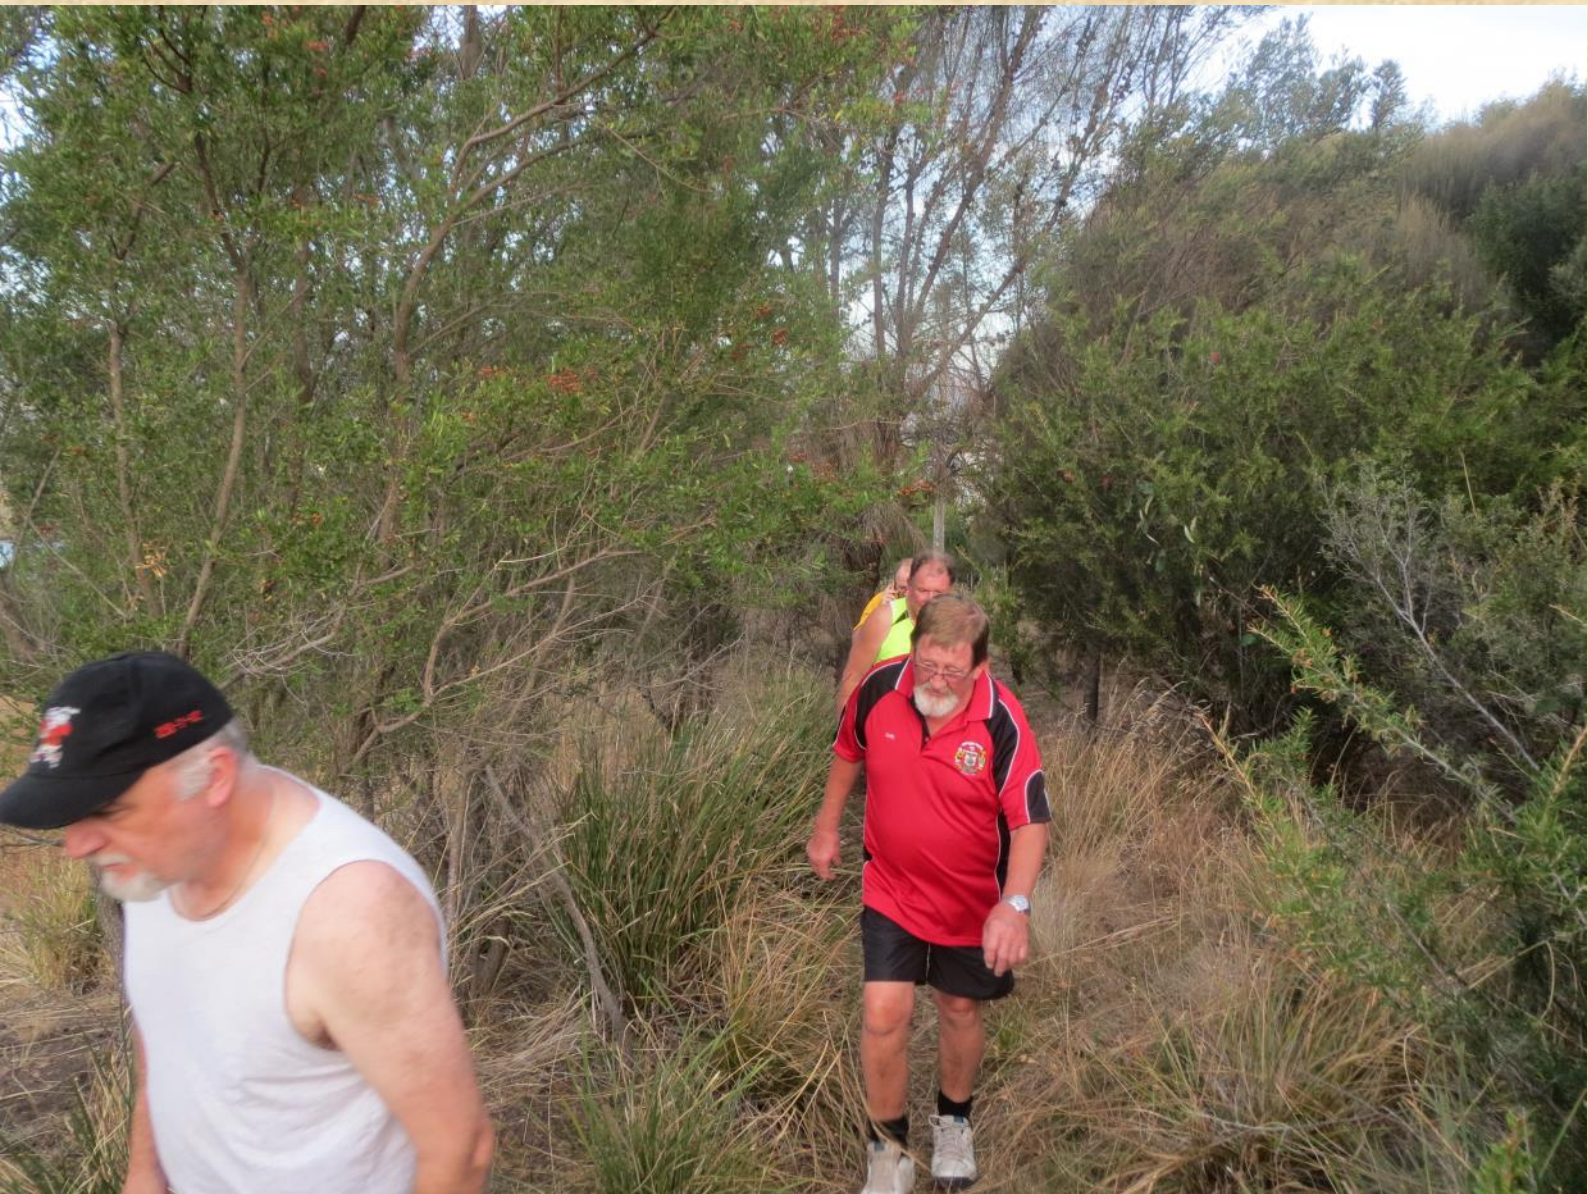

It was a balmy summer's evening - hang on it is autumn but who can tell these days? - so a long run was not needed, but it is Scary and he has a reputation to uphold!

The pack headed off up the powerlines past the surge tower to Pitt Ave for the first check. The pack is predicting the run will head up hill following the power station pipe line, Bendover has other ideas it will go past Scary's daughters new block. Abba checks up Pitt Ave and finally picks up the clearly marked trail. Abba blows the Hash Horn summoning the pack like a mother duck calling her ducklings. The found trail continues on UP to a check in Veulalee Ave. Abba again finds the trail going bush and came out on the back road to the basin but where is Blakey, Tyles and Delly they were last seen heading towards the Max Fry hall.

The trail crosses George Rd and followed the fire trail back into Trevallyn and the On Home was in the standard place for Scary, the rotunda!

Bugsy looks at his watch and says bloody hell I have to pick up Magpie from the airport in 30 minutes. It was the fastest he has ever run from the rotunda to Scarys.

ON ON

Bugsy is back at the ON ON site in record time, the missing Hashers Tyles Delly and Blakey are quaffing down ales as he comes up the driveway they claim to have found an old ON HOME sign outside the Max Fry Hall.

Bugsy grabs his gear and heads off to the airport will he get there on time to pick up Magpie??. Electric Eric returns with a T shirt dripping with perspiration a testament to how warm it is in Launceston tonight. The tight arse Scary says no need for a fire pot tonight much to Tyles annoyance. Tyles has taken delivery of a new truck and a new digger and is crapping on about the time and money he will save with his new outfit then under cross examination had to admit he just quoted one hour to do a job only to find it took 5 hours to complete, should have got a bigger truck and digger Tyles.

Blakey - Sweets and a cap.

Pash - Picnic set [belonged to Plastic]
