LAUNCESTON HASH HOUSE HARRIERS
A DRINKING CLUB WITH A RUNNING PROBLEM

RUN No. 2260 14 Bellevue Ave. South Launceston Hare: Rickshaw

LH3 Hash Weekly Bull Shit -

Run report for run 2260 Rickshaw's grab a Granny from the Manor.

Well we have another rainy night at Rickshaw's place as usual.

It was a huge turn out of about 22 hashers to run one of the GM's famous trails his wife Janelle usually helps set under strict guidance from the GM of course.

So it goes something like this, Janelle had just finished setting the trail and I was walking up Bellevue Avenue when I felt what I thought was an earth tremor, so I looked up and saw a large bunch of fat, beer-barrelled bogans thumping down the street towards me and sent them in the right direction. Naturally, the run started with a check outside KT National and the trail picked up outside the butcher, then crossed the road, up Gascoyne Street and back down Munford Street past the Hash Temple with Pash's new love nest parked in the drive way to Hobart Road. Then hashed up Hobart Road into Machen Street and visited the retirees at the Manor where most of the Hashers are now reflecting on how they will be living their lives in the very very near future. Inlet was told the next stop for the residents was the cemetery and said I am not walking that far tonight it's going to rain. Bugsy says they won't be walking in the rain Mr Finney will be driving them there in his new hearse. After that short visit we headed up Guy Street into Shirley Place and through the Meadows Mews then through to Kings Meadows High School Oval and back onto Hobart Road. Hashed back to Kings Meadows Pub into Innocent Street and up Ormley Street only to find the "On Home" at the Punchbowl Road Bus Stop. That concludes another awesome run of approximately 1 hour set by your fearless leader "Rickshaw".

ON ON:

Another wet night in South Launceston the pack returns just as the heavens open up. Hash Pash must be on the late shift at Metro tonight as he has not ventured out on the run and has bought a plate full of roast lamb and spuds for tea. Ralph has decided that the gravy is better than a can of Pal and is licking the plate clean as Pash calls we know who has not paid. Scary has replenished the beer supply with a new keg of mid strength XXXX and it is pouring well. Rickshaw has the fire pot ablaze and the pack is sheltering under the carport from the intermittent rain down pour.

On Downs:

New old runners

One Hump, Kuzza and Dunnoim

Loggie: Anniversary Run he has finally done 1100 runs

The new committee has taken over and lost all the skolling mugs up you get the new Gm for loosing the mugs been to-night's hare Rickshaw.

We have a birthday boy with us tonight old age must be catching up with him. He rode his motorbike to the local shop and lost his helmet while shopping. The same hasher went to the drink stop at the red dress run in Ballarat to get a six pack and came back with a five pack. Up you get Hash Pash.

Bendover was the next to have a drink for stuffing up the window measurements in the house extensions next door.

The Walkabout Monks [Boong] Rigged raffle:

Inlet: Bag lollies and a Hash cap.

Electric Eric: Bottle rough red.

Sheila: Another bottle rough red.

Scary: Six pack Boags travellers.
